MAKE UP PICTURE DAY

Did you miss having your picture made for our upcoming church directory? You have a second chance to have your picture included in the new directory. As long as we can recruit twenty people/families, Saturday, February 25th will be a make-up / retake day with the photographers. If you were not a part of the original photography sessions, please do your best to be a part of this second chance. Our directory will not be the same without you in it. Reminder: you are under no obligation to buy any pictures just because you have one included in the directory. .

Are you maintaining your temple?

God tells us that our bodies are his dwelling place, so what kind of accommodations are we offering Him? Do we need a little sprucing up or are we in need of an Extreme Makeover Temple Edition? Join Charlotte Reed on Mondays at 7:30 pm (right after Zumba) for a new class based on teaching the tools needed to build a healthy lifestyle one step at a time. The focus of this group is not on any one diet or exercise program, but rather learning about all the elements that make up a healthy lifestyle. We will discuss nutrition and physical aspects of health as well as social, mental and spiritual well being, key components that God has provided to keep our temples in tip top shape. If you have questions feel free to call Charlotte Reed at (859)781-5406 or speak with Linda Howarth, Parish Nurse.

Overcome Hunger!

The Youth Group is participating in a 30 Hour Famine February 19-20....Ask any youth how you can help us overcome hunger to change the world!

Automated Giving is Now Available

A new option for giving to our church is available immediately. If you, as a committed giver, would like to prioritize your giving by using this auto-draft plan, please pick up an enrollment form as you leave the sanctuary. When enrolling, you may specify date and frequency of your gifts. If you have questions, please see our treasurer, Eric Life, or pastor Phil Hogg.

The Offering envelopes for 2012 are in the Gathering area, across from the S.S. Office.
